HAVE YOU BEEN A VICTIM OF A VIOLENT CRIME?

ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

- Have you been a victim of violent crime?
 - Did the crime occur in New Mexico?
 - Was the crime reported to Law Enforcement?
 - Did you cooperate fully with Law Enforcement?
 - Did you have expenses as a result of the crime?

If you answered yes to ALL the above questions, then you may be eligible for compensation.

Who we are?

The New Mexico Crime Victims Reparation Commission was formed in 1981 under the Crime Victims Reparation Act to assist victims of violent crime with expenses incurred as a result of their victimization.

Who qualifies?

Victims who have suffered physical injury or extreme mental distress as a result of one or more of the following crimes:

- Aggravated assault;
- Aggravated battery;
- Criminal sexual contact of a minor;
- Criminal sexual penetration;
- Murder;
- Voluntary manslaughter;
- Involuntary manslaughter;
- Abandonment or abuse of a child;
- Homicide by vehicle or great bodily injury by vehicle;
- Aggravated stalking;
- Kidnaping;
- Arson resulting in bodily injury;
- Aggravated arson;
- Aggravated indecent exposure;
- Dangerous use of explosives; or,
- Negligent use of a deadly weapon.

Who may apply?

- Victims.
- Family and dependents of deceased victims.
- Any individual who voluntarily assumes funeral or medical expenses of the victim.

How does a person qualify?

- The crime must have occurred in New Mexico.
- A police report must have been filed within thirty (30) days of the incident, however in cases of domestic violence and sexual assault the victim has one hundred and eighty (180) days to file a police report.
- A completed application must be filed within two (2) years of the incident. (Some exceptions may be allowed for minors under eighteen (18) years of age.)
- The victim or claimant must cooperate fully with the New Mexico Crime Victims Reparation Commission and all law enforcement agencies. This includes a willingness to prosecute the offender.

How are awards determined?

In determining awards, all applications undergo a thorough review. The Crime Victims Reparation Commission Board takes into account collateral sources available to the victim, such as Medicare, Medicaid, health insurance, worker's compensation, indigent funds, etc., and any contributory behavior on the part of the victim. The submission of an application does not guarantee payment.

Types of reparation:

Awards up to a maximum of $20,000.00 can be made for the following:

- Medical and dental care;
- Mental health counseling; (30 session maximum)
- Funeral and burial expenses; ($6,000.00 maximum)
- Loss of earnings as a result of the crime;
- Eyeglasses; ($350.00 maximum)
- Or other medically necessary devices.

No awards are made for property loss, pain and suffering, or attorney's fees.
