If the applicant does not attend the training after all arrangements have been made, the applicant's agency agrees to pay all non-refundable costs. With NMCVRC's approval, the agency may make arrangements for a replacement, but will be responsible for any additional fees associated with the change. The applicant's agency is responsible for all expenses and must reimburse the applicant for any expenses they incur in accordance to per diem rules. NMCVRC will only reimburse the agency, and will not reimburse the applicant.

The agency supervisor and/or director agrees to the terms of this scholarship award.
